

Ely champs for the third time on trot

TAEKWON-DO

ELY Taekwon-Do school have won the Welsh Open Championship for the third year running.

The UKTA Taekwon-Do Welsh Open, held at NIAC, Cyncoed, saw some 50 schools from the UK take part, to compete in patterns, sparring, special technique and power events.

At the end of the day Senior Master John Taylor VIII was pleased to see his Ely School finish with 16 gold, eight silver, nine bronze and an overall award for Conah Prosser I (13-17 black belt), totalling 75 points. Ely also won the English Open title this year and next month hope to retain the UK Open title they won in 2007.

Ely School is currently located in The Barn, Michaelston College but will return to Western Leisure Centre when it re-opens next month. Further details can be found at www.elytkd.co.uk
